Topics and Agenda (tentative)

Day 1- May 3:

“Compliance- The Essentials”

Not only does an organization need a healthy and collaborative culture for the compliance program to be successful; it needs a strong foundation of basic compliance principles. This segment addresses the basic components needed to establish and maintain an effective compliance program.

8:45 am	Registration
9:00 am	Compliance Trends
10:00 am	Integrating Quality & Compliance
11:00 am	First Line of Defense
12:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm	Compliance Investigations I
3:00 pm	Risk Assessment
4:00 pm	OIG Work Plan

Day 2- May 4:

“Tools for Success”

As enforcement casts an ever wider net in pursuit of fraud recoveries, compliance professionals must address new and emerging compliance challenges. This segment looks at practical tools and methods that will help even the most experienced compliance professionals address these new challenges.

9:00 am	Core Compliance Training
10:00 am	Governance Essentials
11:00 am	Conflict of Interests
12:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm	Reducing Whistleblower Risks
2:00 pm	Compliance Investigations II
4:00 pm	Risk-Based Compliance Auditing

Day 3- May 5:

“Compliance Challenges and Emerging Risks”

Compliance professionals are often so busy with the daily chores of maintaining a compliance program that there is little time to reflect on new and emerging compliance risks. This program segment identifies some of these risks, as well as providing a means for staying abreast of new risk areas.

9:00 am	Legal Compliance Basics	12:00 pm	Lunch
10:00 am	Compliance Program Assessment I	1:00 pm	Using Compliance Surveys
